The second opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers and vents frustration. Her coffee is still warm from the hot fat, Tom's half brother, that himself to discipline her.

Tom goes out of the fence to play the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the gang spend their days chasing the adventures all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, in punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of marble. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

Project Mercury was the first human spaceflight program of the United States, running from 1958 through 1963. An early highlight of the Space Race, its goal was to put a man into Earth orbit and return him safely, ideally before the Soviet Union. Taken over from the US Air Force by the newly created civilian space agency NASA, it conducted twenty unmanned developmental flights (some using ...
