Darkwater in particular, just a bit on the boring side, the story didn't grip me, still a good watch, just the bar is so high. The ending was good, quite gripping, it just seemed a little far fetched, the show is so successful because it's gritty and real, hopefully back on track in Series 9.

2019 release. Darkwater are back with their long-awaited album Human, and it surely won't leave fans of melodic metal or progressive metal disappointed! The songs are heavier, more melodic and atmospheric than before and the band worked really hard on tweaking the ten songs and over 76 minutes of playing time into perfection.

The Darkwater Bride is a great thriller. Dark, captivating, intense at times and thoroughly enjoyable from start to finish, with a satisfying conclusion—this is an Audible drama that I can definitely recommend for fans of a good mystery thriller...Will be giving a second listen for sure

Notes []. According to the Stormcloak soldier Ralof, Darkwater Crossing was the scene of the Imperial ambush that led to the capture of Ulfric Stormcloak.; Some NPCs in Darkwater Crossing mention an elf farmer named Meieran, but he does not exist in the game. Another nonexistent person mentioned is Dasturn, whom Tormir describes as "telling tales again".
