Dream Theater's EP 'A Change of Season's' definitely is an EP even though the entire run time is over 57 minutes. The reason for this is there is only the one original track on this EP which runs over 23 minutes, a suite that was originally written for inclusion on the album 'Images and Words', but for some reason, it was left off that album and released this way.

John Petrucci, John Myung, and Mike Portnoy are all married to members of the band Meanstreak. The "circled M" symbol found on most Dream Theater releases is actually the "M" for Majesty, the band's original name. When they had to change their name, the new one was suggested by Mike Portnoy's father, and it was taken from a cinema of the city where he lived.

Few bands could have conceived of, let alone pulled off, the exercise in excess that Dream Theater have with The Astonishing. In a vast catalog that includes several album-length conceptual statements -- Metropolis, Pt. 2: Scenes from a Memory, Six Degrees of Inner Turbulence-- this is so extreme that it pushes at what their fans (a fanatical lot) may accept.
