Daisies, hibiscus, pansies, and marigolds abound. So do the tiger swallowtail, red admiral, coral hairstreak, and other butterfly varieties. Each attractive rendering of butterflies nestling in flowers is printed in light gray lines that disappear when painted or colored. The result: 23 illustrations that take on a professional look when colored.

In Waldorf education, the letters are presented as pictures which appeal to the child's imagination. In reality the letter is clothes in the picture...the picture is the key. All letters of the alphabet were once pictures themselves. Are pictures ever drawn on rigid lined paper? (And coloring books are NOT pictures!) Additionally, lower case letters came much later - so we ALWAYS begin with ...
