Life Is a Dream. This unreal legend and characters helped the author to express his opinion about the role of upbringing and the faith and here we have a question about our influence on faith, the power of our mind and will that confront faith and about dream and reality.

Life is a Dream Summary - Book Reports

INTRODUCTION. In the original Spanish, Life Is a Dream is a verse play. In translations attempting to be true to the original verse form, the qualities that add to the play's appeal—its lyricism, poetic invention, and linguistic beauty—can make the play seem stilted and more difficult and less engaging than it is.
