Today's lesson is found in Exodus 15-17. Three days after the people had crossed the Red Sea, they couldn't find water in the wilderness. They came to a place called Marah, which means bitter and they couldn't drink the water that was there. (15:23) The people are complaining because they were thirsty and really wanted something to drink. The Lord showed Moses a tree, and Moses threw it into ...

Bible Fun For Kids: Moses: Manna & Quail to Eat!

This past weekend we traveled south to Dinosaur Provincial Park for our annual May camping trip. With 12 families, this was our biggest Dinosaur trip yet and definitely one of the most fun. The kids also LOVE playing in the creek, despite the signs warning users to avoid swimming in it. The water ...
