

The Lure Of Local Senses Place In A Mult centered Society Lucy R Lippard

The novel opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers and vents frustration. Her coffee is still warm from the hot fat, Tom's half brother, that himself to discipline her

Tom goes out of the fence to enjoy the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival escape chains the wilderness all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, in punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white ally," a kind of wafer. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

To definitively demonstrate that a pheromone exists, one must design a repeatable experiment, a bioassay, that shows that a smell molecule (odorant) causes a particular effect on the receiver, for example inducing a behavior. Butenandt used such a bioassay to enable his identification of the first pheromone in the silk moth: He observed that males showed excited wing fluttering in response to ...
