The Rationality Of Emotions A

Summary. He argues that emotions are a kind of perception, that their roots in the paradigm scenarios in which they are learned give them an essentially dramatic structure, and that they have a crucial role to-play in rational beliefs, desires, and decisions by breaking the deadlocks of pure reason. The book's twelve chapters take up...

Rationality and emotion are thus set against each other in The Sign of the Four. Holmes represents the extreme of the former, while Watson and Miss Morstan represent a more emotional (and human) way of life. The reader is asked to question the price that Holmes has to pay in being so devoted to rationality and logic at the expense of emotions.
