THE SWEETEST WITCH AROUND is a fun twist on the humans-afraid-of-witches theme, flipping it in a way that will amuse young kids. They'll giggle when the brave witch says, "Candy -- yuck!"; when Kitty yells, "Holy catnip!"; and when Witchling calls the town below their broom "Candy land!"

The Sweetest Witch Around - Book Review

Though other witches are afraid of people and their strange ways, the protagonist and her little sister are curious about them. Once Witchling learns about Halloween, she develops a taste for candy and goes trick-or-treating.

The sweetest witch around (Book, 2015) [WorldCat.org]

The Sweetest Witch Around is a fun Halloween read aloud told through a very different perspective, that of a witch. The nameless protagonist is the only witch around who is not afraid of humans. As she passes her knowledge down to her sister Witchling about the all things human, including their fascination with yucky disgusting candy, Witchling takes off on her broom to investigate on her own.
